

Ace your Race

Registering a friend or family member for an event.

Applicants can register someone else in the same event without creating another profile.

After the applicant registers for the event they can select the “Register someone else” link. Selecting the link takes them back to the registration page.

All applicants have to do is assign their friend or family member’s name and details in the applicant information page and continue to pay for the applicant with the same credit card.

Register someone else

Tell me more about this Event

Return to race listings

Thanks,
Running Room Events Team