Posts on social links send a strong message of support to friend and family members. You have the ability to personalize the message as well so say something about your effort and goals.

We have also added Social links on the bottom of the Donation Confirmation page. This allows those donating to you to also post the call out to assist in your fundraising efforts.

Help Jack Runner get the word out!
Use the links below to have your family and friends get involved as well.

Fundraising on Social Media has never been easier.
